Five Points Home of Industry.

We are frequently called to account in the following manner: Some one calls at the institution and says, "We sent you, sir, a donation of provisions (or money) on such a day, but you did not acknowledge it."

Our answer is, in most cases to this: There are two Mission Houses at the Five Points; the other building is called House of Industry (Mr. PEASE's), the other building is called Five Points Mission (Methodist). If our friends call to a contribution, and say, "We sent you, sir, a donation on such a day, but you did not acknowledge it," we send Mr. PEASE's Institute, and of course we could not acknowledge its reception, because the two houses have no connection. A donation intended for one house, we send it to Mr. PEASE or B. R. BAKER, House of Industry, N. Y. Grateful for the liberality of friends, we feel bound in justice to the as to make our statement.
